

P.m.

Project user input

Take a screenshot showing user input processed according to design requirements

The image below shows the user input page for my ToDo list Android Java App. The user can select to add a new task and has 2 user input fields that where they can enter a title and details of the task...

